Lesson Learned – Do not upload your phone photos to a flash drive because it jumbles the order of the photos. I apologize because I take a photo of the card and then the item but it was all jumbled up and I am sure that I mislabeled some items and these below were shown but I cannot tie them to a card.

Several bowl size blanks were in the Raffle. Pat provide two starter kits for turning hollow spheres, and there was a $15 card for Woodcraft.

Upcoming Events

Turn for the troops by Scott Taylor

Scott stated that he has distributed 1100 pen kits and to date a few over 400 have been returned. Turn day will be November 6th. Time will start at 8am. If you are bringing a lathe, please bring it to the store on Friday so they can set them up. We will turn 250 pens that day, but the majority of the work will be to put the turned pens into bags and provide a handwritten message with the pen. Watch the website for information

Monte's Visit

Monte shared a new pen display box that is now in the store and about a new type of wood they have that is called Picana which is in the Bacote family of woods.
